

House Resolution No.

Whereas, it is with tremendous pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause in their diverse legislative endeavors in order to acknowledge milestone events in the lives and careers of Show-Me State residents who have proven down through the years to be exemplary citizens in local communities and neighborhoods; and

Whereas, Milly Cohn has attained considerable distinction as community activist and involved citizen; and

Whereas, Milly Cohn recently enhanced her already impressive record of achievement when she received the Daily Record Citizenship Award from the Women's Justice Awards committee at a recognition ceremony at the Chase-Park Plaza Hotel in Saint Louis, Missouri; and

Whereas, Milly Cohn was born in Saint Louis City, attended Soldan Public School, and studied business at Washington University; and

Whereas, the beloved wife of attorney Joseph Cohn, Milly Cohn has developed and maintained an exceptional reputation in light of her activities with the League of Women Voters, Sue Shear Institute for Women in Public Life, American Civil Liberties Union of Eastern Missouri, 22nd Circuit Judicial Commission, and Appellate Judicial Commission; and

Whereas, Milly Cohn is no stranger to honors and accolades, having received a Civil Liberties Award from the ACLU of Eastern Missouri, Saint Louis region Reproductive Rights Award, the Chief Legislative Watchdog Award from the Missouri Alliance for Choice, and the Freedom Award from the Freedom of Choice Council:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the well-deserved selection of Milly Cohn for a Daily Record Citizenship Award by the twelve-member Women's Justice Awards committee and to convey to her this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes for continued personal and professional success for many more years to come; and
